

DELIVERY CONDITIONS BARBMAMA DESIGN

All purchases and price agreements are based on pick up by buyer at the address: Noorddammerweg 83 unit 24, 1187ZS Amstelveen, The Netherlands.

The general conditions of BarbMama Design apply to any purchase and/or order. They can be sent digitally on demand.

When BarbMama Design offers an item including delivery to the customer, requested by this customer, then the distribution and the delivery are an additional service which administratively on the address and on behalf of the customer will be commissioned to freight or mail and parcel services by BarbMama Design.

In that case: BarbMama Design bears no responsibility other than proper exchange of delivery data.

BarbMama Design accepts no liability for a delivery service.

Deliveries via mail and parcel services will be provided as much as possible with track and trace codes which will be communicated with the client, if that is not possible it will be sent by registered mail.

Customer is obliged to conclude a transport loss and damage insurance or bear the risk of transportation lost and damage himself.

BarbMama Design will, in the event of damage or loss during transport, hand over all its available data on the carrier to the customer so that he can directly process his request with the carrier.

Customer has the ability to inspect the objects at the above address before any delivery.

BarbMama Design takes pictures of objects to be send in the state before packaging and hands over these pictures if desired in case of loss or damage.